Wow! I Can Bear-ly even tell you're a Bear!

Those humans are pretty dumb. Recent tests in the study of Bear Disguises have shown that they can be fooled just by wearing their own clothes! Some outfits seem to draw less attention than others, but we're still experimenting with that particular correlation...

Roll a D6 four times to determine your outfit and your Human Believability Score (HBS).

If you are seen by a human/ humans whilst wearing this outfit, the BM will roll 4 x D6. If the outcome is equal to or lower than your HBS you pass as a human. If the roll is higher than your HBS you may arouse suspicion or be instantly outed!

You reach into your dressing up box full of "Human Clothes" and put on...
